NIGHT LAMPS.

SOMETHING NEW!

We have received from Edison's factory an Electric Lamp for bedroom use which is going to prove invaluable. By means of a regulating screw the light can be changed from a dull red glow to full candle power. When retiring the lamp can be so turned down as to burn all night at little cost, and by means of the screw can instantly be turned on full power.
It will be found a great convenience in the bed room or the nursery.

Price $1.25 each.

HOUSE PASSES HAWAII BILL.

Washington is the best governed city on earth," he said. Proceeding, Hill said he did not believe the people of the United States were prepared to take the first step toward Statehood of our insular possessions. It was but a step from a Territory to a State and presented no insurmountable difficulties.
The dominant party to admit the Territory. He would not vote to place a delegate from anywhere on the floor of the House who was not elected by a constituency which knew what it was doing.

Hitt of Illinois, a member of the Hawaiian Commission, opposed the amendment. He said it was desirable, in legislating for the islands, that there should be a delegate on the floor who could be questioned. If there was no delegate the corridors would be crowded with lobbyists representing special interests. Everybody knew what a lobbyist was. Whether he was an ex-Governor, an ex-Senator, an ex-Justice of the Supreme Court or a common hireling in Washington, he represented special interests. Hill recalled that the Ministers from Hawaii in the past—Carter, Thurston, Hatch and Hastings—were all honorable men, who had the privilege of the floor, but no voice.

No Monarchy Lessons.
"The gentleman has had broad experience with foreign affairs," interrupted Hill. "Does he know of a single insular government in the world, either in Great Britain, France or Germany, or any other European power, which has a representative in the home parliament?"

"We are a popular representative Government essentially," replied Hill.
"and a republic does not need to take lessons from monarchies in the application of our own system." (Great applause on both sides of the House.) Williams of Mississippi argued that the Constitution entitled every organized territory to a delegate on the floor of the House. He had opposed the annexation of Hawaii originally because he had foreseen the race problem. It would bring with it. He replied with much feeling to Hill's reference, earlier in the day, to the restricted suffrage in Mississippi.

Suffrage Again.
"Does the gentleman imagine," said he, "that we of the South take any pride in the fact that we are compelled to restrict the suffrage in the interests of civilization?"

"I do not," replied Hill; "but why not apply the same system to Hawaii?"
"Whenever I am faced with the race problem," continued Williams, "I stand for white supremacy. I stand for white supremacy in Hawaii as I stand for it in Mississippi. It is the duty of man to lift up those below him if he can, but there is no injunction, human or divine, which obliges white men to herd with narrow foreheads. Ignorant of our glorious gains. I have no idea that the blacks will ever rise to the plane of the whites and I indulge in no hypocrisy about it."

Williams said it had become the representatives of Connecticut and Rhode Island to taunt the men of the South with their election laws. He created much amusement by his references to some of the peculiarities of the election laws in Rhode Island and Connecticut and drew the fire of the Representatives of those States.

Clark of Missouri said he was too totally opposed to taxation, without representation. Hill's amendment was lost.

Constitutional Laws Delayed.
An amendment was adopted to postpone for one year the time when the constitutional laws of the United States should be extended to Hawaii. An amendment was added to the end of the bill providing that no Chinese who obtain a certificate in Hawaii under the terms of the bill shall be allowed to enter any State or Territory of the United States.

Asiatics Must Go.
De Armond of Missouri offered an amendment compelling all Asiatics who have entered the islands under contract since the date of annexation, to leave within a year. Adopted.

For White Labor.
Newlands offered an amendment declaring it to be the purpose of the Act to encourage free white labor in the islands and discourage Asiatic labor and providing that within one year all corporations shall employ at least one-tenth white labor; one-tenth more each subsequent year until at least three-fourths of the employees shall be citizens of the United States and of Hawaii. The amendment was lost—34 to 77.

A committee amendment was adopted to close up and regulate the affairs of the Hawaiian Savings Bank.
Hill of Connecticut offered an amendment providing that nothing in the Act should be construed as a pledge of Statehood in the immediate or distant future.

Knox characterized the amendment.
In the words of former Representative Walker of Massachusetts, as "almighty nonsense." The amendment was lost.

Another committee amendment was adopted to make section 52, relating to appropriations, go into effect after the approval of the Act.

The last amendment adopted was one offered by Newlands of Nevada to create the office of Commissioner of Labor in Hawaii.

The committee then reported the bill and amendments to the House.
Bartholdt of Missouri moved to recommit the bill with instructions to strike out the amendment prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in saloons in Hawaii and report the bill back forthwith as amended. The motion was lost—50 to 83. The bill was then passed—120 to 28. At 3:50 p. m.
the House adjourned.
